

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1873.

POST OFFICE HOURS.

BEAUFORT, S. C., Sept. 24, 1873. On and after Monday Oct. 6th, office open from 8:15 a. m. until 4 p. m., mail closes at 2:15 p. m. mail delivered at 2:40 p. m.

P. E. ZEKIEL, Postmaster.

Aimie ought to know that the newspaper law is unalterable—she must send her name.

Kingman has half fare tickets, good for ten days between here and Charleston, from December 9th, for sale to such masons as desire to attend the masonic celebration.

Col. Screven recently said in a railroad meeting in Savannah, that the idea was gaining ground in Savannah that the development of Port Royal instead of injuring, would benefit that city.

A mass meeting of the colored people of Savannah was held on Monday night; resolutions passed denouncing the massacre in Cuba, demanding satisfaction, declaring for the abolition of slavery there and offering five thousand volunteers to enforce their desires. Is it not time for our generals, colonels etc., to speak out? Is Beaufort to be cold and languid at such an hour? Forbid it heaven!

The Yemassee Eating saloon of Mr. A. E. Owens, is conceded to be the best railroad house in the state.

The Memphis authorities having declined to accept further aid, so liberal have been the contributions, we suggest that the Beaufort fund be sent to Bainbridge, Georgia, where it is said there is great destitution.

The Aiken Journal says that Judge Maher has ruled that the holder of a warranty title given by the auditor for lands sold as forfeited to the state, must prove his title, the legal presumption being against him.

The story about the three little colored boys sending ten cents each to Memphis is said to be a pious fraud.

Postal cards may be sent to any part of the German empire from the United States by affixing a one cent stamp upon the ordinary postal card.

To be resold.

The Waltham and cargo will be resold next Monday. See Marshal's advertisement.

A "Doll's calico party" was the event of last week in fashionable circles. It was given by Miss Lou Mayo, and it proved a gathering of beautiful and cherished darlings, arrayed in tasteful chinz'es made in the latest styles. Among the most noticeable were Misses Lucy and Alice Wells, Miss Lou Pollitzer, the Misses Collins and Rhoades, Miss Daisy Thompson, a perfect blonde, and charming May Mayo. Gentlemen dolls were rather scarce, but Bennie Mayo was very sweet and gallant.

Good, both Ways.

H. Jones has been removed from and Dr. John A. Johnson has been appointed to the position of health officer at this port. The governor moved promptly in this matter and he has the thanks of all good citizens. Jones had no qualification for the post. He is ignorant, conceited and insolent, and is not a graduate of any reputable college. He never would have been appointed had our selector been aware of his character. Dr. John A. Johnson is one of our most esteemed citizens, and although an iron-clad conservative he has the endorsement of radical representatives because he is otherwise fitted for the place.

Convention of Sea Island Planters.

The Agricultural Society of South Carolina has issued a circular signed by the Committee of the Association, A. B. Rose, C. A. Chism and S. P. Ravenel, inviting the sea island cotton planters of Florida, Georgia and South Carolina to meet in convention in Charleston on Monday, the 15th of December, for the purpose of holding a conference pertaining to matters touching the vital interests of those engaged in such agricultural pursuit.

The annual visitation of the destructive caterpillar, the voracious rat of inter-est which planters have to pay for money to employ labor of an uncertain character, and to buy plantation supplies, and the manifestly increasing production of sea island cotton in other countries from seed of our own selections, and by labor obtained at a nominal cost, have reduced the value of our cotton below the cost of production, and rendered its consumption and sale precarious and commercially too hazardous. It is therefore deemed a wise course for an intelligent body of farmers to meet and counsel together, and suggest such substitutes of growth as are most likely to suit our genial soil, and give a reasonable remuneration for capital and labor employed. Agricultural societies or clubs, or neighborhood associations, are respectfully requested to appoint delegates to represent them in this convention, and we hope to hear of a full representation from this section.

A Tax Titles Case.

In the recent term of court, held at Waterboro, a case involving the validity of tax titles was tried before Judge Maher. A plantation in St. Paul's belonging to the plaintiff was sold last year for non payment of taxes, and bought by the defendant. The plaintiff claimed that the law had not been complied with, in that the boundaries were not correctly given in the advertisement. Judge Maher in his charge to the jury, fully sustained the tax law, but charged that the effect of it being to deprive persons of their property, for less than a fair consideration, it was necessary that persons claiming under tax titles should be required to show that the law had been strictly complied with. If the giving of the wrong boundaries was calculated in the opinion of the jury to mislead parties interested, and lead them to suppose that the property advertised was not theirs, then the plaintiff was entitled to a verdict. The jury returned a verdict for the defendant. On motion the plaintiff was granted ten days from October 29th, in which to make up and serve a case and serve notice of a new trial. Entry of judgment was stayed till the determination of such notice.

The schooner E. H. Potter is at Port Royal, with an assorted cargo for the interior. John Rich & Co.

Twenty-four car loads of coal have been delivered on the railroad dock.

From the number of claims mentioned in our Columbia letter as having passed, and now being considered, the only inference we can draw at this distance is, that parties having tired of fighting en masse, have resorted to details, and are approaching the state treasury by a movement in echelon.

Panic Prices for Cash

W. M. French has just received per the schooner Earl H. Potter, an invoice of goods which he will sell at really panic prices, for cash only; no goods delivered until paid for.

Oat meal, Imperial Scotch, at 15 cts. per pound; Chow Chow, Cross & Blackwells, at 40 cts. per jar; Pickles, by the hundred in barrels; Tomato Catsup, quarts, 25 cts; Sardines, quarter boxes, 25 cts; Pepper Sauce, 15 cts; Gherkins, half gallon jars, 40 cts; Gerkins, pints, 20 cts; Roasted Rio Coffee, 40 cts; Worcestershire Sauce, 45 cts; Macaroni and Vermicelli, imported, 20 cts; Cocoa Shells, 20 per pound; Condensed Milk, fresh, 35 cts; Crushed Sugar, 7 1/2 for one dollar; Granulated Sugar, 7 1/2 pounds for one dollar; Coffee Sugar 8 pounds for one dollar.

Standard Drips, dried apples; dried peaches (peeled) chocolate, jellies, preserves, layer raisins, codfish, canned fruits, prunes.

Fresh Nic Nacs, Milk Biscuits, Lemon Biscuit, Soda Biscuit, Oyster Crackers, Ginger Snaps, Sugar Crackers, Butter Crackers.

Boston Crackers, Lemon Creams, by the pound or barrel.

Cranberries, figs, dates, grapes, oranges, apples, cabbage, potatoes, onions.

Two hundred and fifty lbs. assorted candies Almonds, Pecans, Brazil nuts, Filberts, English Walnuts.

About fifty shares of Augusta factory stock were sold in Augusta on Friday last at prices ranging from $162 to $170.

UNITED STATES MARSHAL'S OFFICE, South Carolina District, Charleston, November 25, 1873.—James A. Early et al. vs. J. Waltham and Cargo—Lined for Sale.—In Admiralty. By virtue of an order of sale in the above case, to be directed, by Hon. Geo. S. Bryan, Judge of the District Court of the United States, I will sell at public auction at the wharf in Beaufort, in the County of Beaufort and State of South Carolina, on Monday, the 1st December, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The American Brig WALTHAM, her tackle, apparel and furniture, as she now lies at the wharf. Also about 4,000 cross-ties—cypress and pine. Terms cash. R. M. WALLACE, U. S. Marshal.

FOUND ADRIFT.

A BATEAUX BOAT 20 FEET LONG, 4 FEET WIDE and 20 inches deep, was picked up between Ball River and Coosaw, which the owner can have by applying to the undersigned, proving property and paying charges. WM. SIMMONS, Coosaw River.

ASIATIC CHOLERA IN CHINA.

Almost Every Case Cured With PAIN-KILLER.

DEAR SIR: During a residence of some ten years in Siam and China, as a missionary, I found your Pain-Killer a most valuable remedy for that fearful scourge the Cholera. In administering the medicine I found it most effectual to give a teaspoonful of Pain-Killer in a glass of hot water sweetened with sugar, then in about fifteen minutes, begin to give a tablespoonful of the same mixture every five minutes until relief was obtained. Apply hot applications to the extremities. Bathe the stomach with the Pain-Killer, clear, and rub the limbs briskly. Of those who had the Cholera, and took the medicine faithfully, in the way stated above, eight out of ten recovered.

DEAR SIR: During a residence in China I have used your valuable Pain-Killer, both in my own family and among the Chinese, and have found it a most excellent medicine. In the summer of 1862 and 1863, while residing in Shanghai, I found it an almost certain cure for cholera, if used in time. Indeed, using it in a great many instances, I do not remember failing in a single case. For three years I have been residing in this place, more than fifty miles from a physician, and have been obliged often to fall upon my own resources in cases of sickness. The Chinese come to us in great numbers for medicine and advice. Though without medical knowledge, the few simple remedies we can command are so much in advance of their physicians, that we have become almost daily in contact with them and open a door of usefulness. In diarrhea, colic, vomiting, cholera, coughs, etc., your Pain-Killer has been my chief medicine. Yours, very truly,

Rev. T. P. CRAWFORD, Tusnehow, China. Those using Pain-Killer should strictly observe the following directions: At the commencement of the disease, take a tea spoonful of Pain-Killer, in sugar and water, and then bathe freely across the stomach and bowels with the Pain-Killer clear. Should the diarrhea and cramp continue, repeat the dose every fifteen minutes. In this way the dreadful scourge may be checked and the patient relieved in the course of a few hours. N. B.—Be sure and get the genuine article; and it is recommended by those who have used the Pain-Killer for the cholera, that in extreme cases the patient take two (or more) tea spoonfuls instead of one. The PAIN-KILLER is sold by all the Druggists and Dealers in Family Medicines. Price 25 and 50 cents and $1.

PERRY DAVIS & SON, Manufacturers Proprietors, 136 High St., Prov., R. I.

J. M. Williams, ATTORNEY AT LAW

Beaufort, S. C.

Will practice in Circuit Courts of the 2d Circuit, and Trial Justice Courts of the Port Royal Railroad.

sept. 18-ly.

A Congressional Apportionment.

Representative Nat. Myers has introduced a bill to divide the state into five congressional districts. The proposed bill arranges the counties as follows:

Table with 2 columns: County, Population. Lists counties like Georgetown, Williamsburg, Darlington, etc., with their respective populations.

Table with 2 columns: County, Population. Lists counties like Charleston, Orangeburg, Clarendon, Lexington, etc., with their respective populations.

Table with 2 columns: County, Population. Lists counties like Richland, Newberry, Abbeville, Laurens, Anderson, Oconee, Pickens, etc., with their respective populations.

Table with 2 columns: County, Population. Lists counties like Greenville, Spartanburg, Union, York, Chester, Fairfield, Kershaw, Lancaster, etc., with their respective populations.

Table with 2 columns: County, Population. Lists counties like Colleton, Beaufort, Jasper, Edgefield, Aiken, etc., with their respective populations.

Table with 2 columns: County, Population. Lists counties like Colleton, Beaufort, Jasper, Edgefield, Aiken, etc., with their respective populations.

Latest News Items, Dr. S. B. Thompson has been appointed assistant physician at the lunatic asylum.

A bill to charter the boatman's River mining phosphate company has passed the house; also a joint resolution relative to a special tax for Beaufort County.

Gen. Smalls introduced a resolution into the state senate, calling upon the federal government to establish a navy yard at Port Royal, and to aid in building a railroad from Chicago to the South Atlantic.

It is stated that a defalcation of $200,000 has been discovered in the accounts of the treasurer of the Freedman's Savings bank in Washington.

County Commissioners, The board met on Tuesday. Liquor licenses were issued to J. M. Grey, near Varnville; S. Bowman, Sheldon; A. E. Owens, Yemassee; F. Schultz, Port Royal; Wm. Kressell, St. Helena. On Wednesday certificates were issued to M. Pollitzer, for blankets, $81.35; J. Brodie, poor, $140.12; ditto, for work, $24.62; Rebecca Williams, nurse, $15; commissioner Drayton, $33. J. C. Mayo was ordered to sell the flats, boats, etc., used on the Whitehall ferry. The auditor was authorized to collect a special tax of two mills to pay the county debt. An advertisement was ordered to be inserted in the Beaufort papers calling for proposals to feed the county poor. It will be found elsewhere. The board adjourned until December 29.

A fortunate negro, living three miles from Augusta, has discovered a petrified human body.

PROPOSALS For Furnishing Rations to the Inmates of the Almshouse, for the Year 1874.

The American Brig WALTHAM, her tackle, apparel and furniture, as she now lies at the wharf. Also about 4,000 cross-ties—cypress and pine. Terms cash. R. M. WALLACE, U. S. Marshal.

SEALD PROPOSALS will be received by the Board of County Commissioners for Beaufort County until Monday, December 29, 1873, at 4 o'clock, for furnishing rations to the inmates of the county almshouse during the year 1874. The following is the ration for each person, per week: Six quarts hominy, Three pounds meat, One pint salt, One quart molasses, One quart rice, Quarter of a pound Coffee, Half a pound of Sugar, Half a pound of Soap, Two ounces Tobacco, and pipes. The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. JNO. A. JOHNSON, Acting Clerk.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

WM. S. LANCE, ADMINISTRATOR. Estate of Thomas Ferree vs. Wm. Ferree et al. same vs. Wm. Ferree, Enlow & Co., vs. Thomas Ferree et al. By an order made by Hon. T. J. Maher dated the 11th day of July, A. D. 1873, in the above stated case, I am directed to sell at public sale on Monday the 18th day of December, at 10 o'clock, the legal lots of land situated in Beaufort County, and containing in the whole five hundred and fifty (550) acres more or less. Also, the undivided shares of Thomas Ferree and William Ferree, being one undivided fourth in the following lands, lately the property of John Ferree, deceased, and containing in the whole one hundred (100) acres more or less. The shares of Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract of land in said county, called "Home tract," bounded north by land of J. Z. Reeves, east by public road leading from Granvilleville to Port Royal, west by lands of Charles Heyward, west by lands of John Ferree, and containing in the whole five hundred and fifty (550) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by lands of Wiggins, south by lands of O. P. Law, west by lands of estate of Charles Heyward, and containing in the whole twelve hundred (1200) acres more or less. Also, the said Thomas and William Ferree, each one undivided fourth of that tract in said county, called "Barnyard tract," bounded north by lands of John Ferree, east by